

C. PERSONNEL

HIRING

Pupils attending the public schools of Raleigh County have the right to expect that they will come in contact with the best staff that can be recruited. Consequently, it shall be the policy of the Board to open all vacancies to all qualified candidates. The Raleigh County Board of Education does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, disability, marital status, or national origin in its educational programs and activities. Inquiries may be directed to the Raleigh County Board of Education, 105 Adair Street, Beckley, WV 25801, telephone number 256-4500, or the Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights.

It is further believed that the education of a pupil is enhanced if he is exposed to a variety of philosophies and points of view. Therefore, an attempt shall be made to recruit personnel with a variety of backgrounds and experiences.
