When a prank note from two elementary aged students finds its way to a news room desk, an entire community is unbalanced and out of control. What would happen if bedtime were cancelled? What second grade student hasn’t hoped that bedtime could be cancelled so that he/she could play a little longer? Find out what happens in this hilarious book.

Activity:
Why are newspapers important to a community?

Locate these different parts of the newspaper:
- Headline
- A sale price
- Comic strip
- Sport score
- Movie time

Let’s write a news story
Talk about something that interests your child.
Have him/her write a short news story about a pet or recent event.
Draw an illustration.